

Hampton Court Palace

is pleased to announce two new special offers for 2008!

To help start the year in style, we are offering two special offers on venue hire for all events to our clients and suppliers at Hampton Court Palace.

Henry VIII's palace by the Thames

Since its early days as Henry VIII's flamboyant 'pleasure palace', Hampton Court has been the home of lavish hospitality and entertainment, a heritage that continues today.

Now your guests can follow in the footsteps of kings and queens as many of the palace's magnificent state rooms are offered as unique regal backdrops for prestigious receptions, banquets and events. The 60 acres of surrounding grounds also offer fantastic opportunities for bespoke events.

Guests can hold court with a reception in Henry's spectacular Great Hall, or perhaps eat like a king (or queen!) in the intimacy of William III's King's Eating Room, which overlooks the enchanting Privy Garden. Or enjoy a reception or gala dinner in the magnificent formal gardens with a tailor-made marquee event.

Enhance your event by arranging private tours of the palace with our costumed guides or a private view of our exhibitions with our specialist curators. We can also offer spectacular fireworks displays to end your event with a bang!

The palace is not just a beautiful location for formal events, but can offer space for conferences and exhibitions in a multitude of places within the grounds of this glorious venue, with capacity ranging from 2 - 100+ people.
